

CROSSWORD – SECONDARY

ACROSS

- 4) What type of greenhouse gas do large dam reservoirs release through the decomposition of vegetation?
- 5) What is the term for water left over from oil sands production that is set aside to settle in a basin? (2 words)

- 6) Drilling rigs are fitted with a specific mechanism that prevents accidental releases of oil. What is the acronym for this mechanism?
- 8) What is the term used to describe an energy source, such as wind, that is not always available?

- 9) What is the name of Canada's unique nuclear reactor technology?
- 10) What is the main RPP used by remote communities in Nunavut for electricity generation?

DOWN

- 1) What type of technology is used in solar energy production that is made of semiconductor materials that absorb light and release electrons?
- 2) Hydraulic fracturing can be used to extract oil and what other fossil fuel?

- 3) Which is the only province other than Ontario to produce nuclear energy? (2 words)
- 7) What is the name of the largest oil sands deposit in Alberta?

